John P. McLean's Great Newspaper.

Without a single exception, there is beyond doubt a greater or more popular newspaper in the United States than the Cincinnati Enquirer,
or a more successful publisher than its proprietor, Mr. John R. McLean.

The old-time prices of the Daily Enquirer have been maintained, and its circulation largely increased each year, four times and cheaper journals failing to arrest its onward march and high appreciation of the public for its true worth and merit.

The Weekly Enquirer at beginning of the campaign year was offered at 50 cents a year, and its circulation increased by the addition of over 200,000 new subscribers, the most substantial and coveted testimonial a publisher could desire.

When asked for the secret of such success, Mr. McLean frankly answers:
The Enquirer has no opinion to force
upon its patrons, it simply prints the facts and tells the truth that the reader

form his own opinions. By maintaining the price of the paper,
more news and greater variety can be furnished, and every class of business interest catered to, which a cheaper
paper cannot afford.

The very liberal support given the
paper by the public at large, makes itself manifest upon the management and every class of business interest catered to, which a cheaper
paper cannot afford.

A New Study of Fashionable Life.

Julien Gordon (Mrs. Van Renaissance Cruege) has used for her last novel a
study of New York, Newport and Boston life, which promises to be read with
wide interest by all who are interested in American fashionable life.

No one knows the society of these three centers of fashion better than Mrs. Cruege. From her girlhood
up she had every opportunity to observe and we have had no American
woman of more brilliant powers, not only in reading the human heart, but
of putting her impressions in delightful
fashion.

VETERANS MEETING

Thousands of Them Attending the National Encampment.

COLONEL WINAN'S ESTIMATE.

Candidates for Commander-in-Chief Cincinnati Has the Call on the Next Meeting—Bad Blood Brewing over the Cherokee Settlement—Professor Jordan on the Seal Fisheries—Postmasters.

BUFFALO, Aug. 23.—Buffaloans are all ready for the army of veterans who are on their way here to attend the annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic. Veterans and their friends are coming in by thousands. It is estimated that 15,000 to 20,000 came in yesterday and they are pouring in today.

The various railroads entering Buffalo report that in addition to the hundreds of regular trains, schedules have been prepared for 245 specials to arrive here by noon tomorrow. Among the prominent arrivals are J. Cory Winans of Commander-in-Chief Clarkson's staff; J. S. Lewis, past junior vice commander, and Daniel Ross of Wilmington, Del., candidate for junior vice commander-in-chief.

Among the announcements of candidates to succeed Commander-in-Chief Clarkson are the names of John C. Linehan, New Hampshire; George H. Innis, Massachusetts; James A. Sexton, Chicago and J. P. S. Gobin, Pennsylvania. Colonel Winans of Commander-in-Chief Clarkson's staff estimates the number of visitors to Buffalo during the week at 20,000, making the largest encampment ever held. In speaking of choice of the veterans for the next encampment Colonel Winans said that so far as his information went, there was but one choice among the delegates and that was Cincinnati. With regard to the encampment being held in Richmond, Va., he asserted their is nothing in it. The people down there don't want it and the veterans don't care to go there. The chief objection, he said, was the certainty of unpleasant complications of the color line.

The race for the national presidency of the Women's Relief corps is exciting much interest. Mrs. Martin of Missouri seems to be the choice of the greater portion of the delegates who have arrived. Illinois has again put forth Mrs. Thomas J. Miller, but as this lady has held the position for several years, it is felt that some other should succeed her now. Mrs. Helen M. Griffiths of Iowa, is also a candidate.

Mr. Reynolds was 17 years old when he came to this country from Ireland 50 years ago. When the Fenian movement was organized Reynolds became one of its conspicuous supporters. He was active in this position in raising money and sending men to aid in the invasion of Canada in 1869.

BANK ROBBERY FRUSTRATED.

Attempts to Loot a Savings Bank at Canton—One Burglar Killed.

CANTON, O., Aug. 23.—Merchant Policeman Charles S. Hemminger surprised burglars in the basement of the Isaac Harter & Sons' Savings bank early yesterday morning. The guard of the party opened fire on the officer and the latter shot one of the men who had been in the cellar. The burglar died at the hospital without revealing his identity. The burglars were no doubt professionals. The bank is a strong one and generally believed to contain a large sum of money.

URGED TO RESUME THE WAR.

Greeks Want King George to Reject the Treaty of Peace.

ATHENS, Aug. 23.—A meeting of over 3,000 people held here yesterday adopted an address to King George, urging him and the government to reject the proposed peace treaty between Greece and Turkey and to resume the hostilities which were interrupted by the truce.

The entire press, however, and a great majority of the public of Athens condemn the agitation for a resumption of the war.

SEA FISHERIES.

PORLAND, Or., Aug. 23.—Dr. David Starr Jordan, commissioner-in-chief of the far seal investigations, with George A. Clark, secretary of the committee, arrived in Seattle in the revenue cutter Rush yesterday enroute for San Francisco. Dr. Jordan reports the satisfactory completion of the summer's investigations by the two commissioners.

The breeding grounds show a shrinkage of about 15 per cent over the conditions of last season, the hunting grounds a shrinkage of 33 per cent. This is about what was predicted by the American commission last year and the conclusions are fully vindicated in all important regards.

A spark from an airtight in Lehman & Scherer's hardware store caused a fire, loss of $500.00 worth of dry goods by fire, two boys at Spencer, Ind., were fooling with an old rusty revolver when one shot the other in the face. Injury not serious.

Dr. John M. Clark is dead at Economy, Ind., from paralysis. He was stricken over a year ago and since that time has been a helpless invalid.

Distillers who do a bottling business at Louisville, Ky., are much chagrined to learn that they will have to pay a special tax.

PRESIDENT'S SUNDAY.

McKinley Bored by a New Politician—Short Conference.

BLUFF POINT, N. Y., Aug. 23.—The last Sunday for rest for President McKinley, prior to his departure from this summer resort, was disturbed yesterday by the removal to this scene of the Worth-Platt Brooklyn controversy. The president attended religious services in the drawingroom of the hotel, listening to a sermon by Rev. J. A. Gamble of Plattsburg. When the service was over Congressman Lemuel E. Quigg, president of the New York Republican county committee, intercepted the president on his way to his private apartment and asked for a conference. The president was evidently annoyed and Mr. Quigg's conference did not last more than 10 minutes, finishing in the president's room.

ABLE TO PROVE ALIBIS.

Men Accused of Robbing the Bank at Shepherd, Mich.

SHEPHERD, Mich., Aug. 23.—Two of the three men accused in Cashier Struble's ante mortem statement of the bank robbery here, will be able to produce impregnable alibis. The fact that the cashier was under the influence of morphine seems to detract somewhat from the weight of his dying statement.

John F. Ryan, owner of the bank, says the amount taken by the robbers will not exceed $2,000. Many of the account books of the bank are missing also, which seems to make it certain that the perpetrators of the crime were not ordinary burglars.

CATALPA JIM.

James Reynolds, a Noted Member of the Fenian Brotherhood, Dead.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Aug. 23.—James Reynolds, known as "Catalpa Jim" died at his home in this city yesterday. Mr. Reynolds was one of the leading spirits in the Old Fenian brotherhood and his fitting out of the Catalpa expedition made his name widely known throughout the country.

Mr. Reynolds was 17 years old when he came to this country from Ireland 50 years ago. When the Fenian movement was organized Reynolds became one of its conspicuous supporters. He was active in this position in raising money and sending men to aid in the invasion of Canada in 1869.

BEST BLOOD BREWING.

Keetown Society Making Threats Against the Cherokee Commission.

CHELSEA, I. T., Aug. 23.—A report has reached here that the Keetown society, an organization among the Cherokee full blood Indians, has threatened personal damage to the members of the Cherokee commission, looking to the destruction of the tribal government and as a result there is much stir in full blood circles of this district. It has been privately known for some time that the Keetown, which is a powerful organization, was averse to treating, but that they should openly threaten meets with much surprise. The Keetown sent a fullblood delegation to Washington to persuade congress to prevent their government extinction, and they are the leaders of the scheme to emigrate all the Indians to Mexico when their government is abolished. The citizens of this district are fearful lest the fullbloods will arise in arms to prevent such a result.

The entire press, however, and a great majority of the public of Chelsea condemn the agitation for a resumption of the war.

BUSINESS NOTES.

Mrs. Ira B. Davis is visiting Vallonia relatives.

Wheat is strong at eighty-five cents in this market today.

Miss Lizzie Rebber went this morning to Cincinnati to reside.

T. J. Stanfield made a business trip this morning to Columbus.

T. S. Bish came home this morning from an important business trip west.

S. V. Harding made a business trip this morning to North Vernon.

Leonard Harvey, of near Wayman'sville, came here today on business.

B. D. Weekly, of Spraytown, favored the REPUBLICAN with a business call to day.

Mrs. Joseph Balsley went this morning to Cincinnati to visit her son, Robert O., and family.

Misses Edna Hartman and Emma Luedtke returned today to Bedford from a visit to friends here.

V. L. Beem, of Medora, came up this morning on business and to visit his daughter, Mrs. R. W. Erwin.

William H. Brock, a fine farmer of Freetown, was in the city today and favored the REPUBLICAN with a business call.

The rest of the audience were bewildered by the ticking all over the house, and it was great fun for the boys and a shrewd move on the part of the management, for it attracted telegraphers in great force. They enjoyed the puzzled expression of the people, who couldn't understand the unanimity of the answer from the gallery, orchestra and lobby. Of course the talk between the stage and the house was not confined to this salutation. It was on all sorts of topics, usually in the form of an interrogation, with a request for a simultaneous answer. The story has been told to the younger men, and whenever a play is produced in which a telegraph key figures they like to see if the experience will be repeated.

Jacob Denny, S. Z. Cross, Hiram Sprague and Ephraim Poor, of Free town, brought two wagon loads of clover seed here this morning and sold it to J. H. Hodapp.

People yesterday were made to feel happy by a nice refreshing rain that set in at 11 o'clock and came down gently for an hour, cooling the atmosphere and laying the dust.

The True Remedy.

W. M. Repine, editor Tiskilwa, Ill. "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Experimented with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home, as in it we have a certain and sure cure for Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to relieve. Trial bottles free at W. F. Peter's drug store.

JOHN R. McLEAN'S
GREAT NEWSPAPER.

Without a single exception, there are no doubt no greater or more popular newspaper in the United States than the Cincinnati Enquirer.
A more successful publisher than McLean, no man.

Mr. John R. McLean,
the editor-in-chief, has been maintained, and circulation has increased each year.

What do you conceive a greater attraction over all? demanded the lecturer, with air of triumph.

"I am surprised a voice from the
audience asked:

"What is the grand terrestrial object?"

"You wished."

The lecturer, somewhat puzzled,
shallowed the man who had spoken to
name the article. "It is up now," he said, "in every newspaper."

"I will give you facts, professors, and you have got to for yourself. When I was a young man, there was a little piece of natural magnet done up in a neat case.
It was called Betsy McLean. She could draw me 14 miles on Sunday over land, no matter what the weather. There wasn't no other magnet like it, but it won't draw so far as Betsy. — Strand Magazine.

When asked for the secret of such success, Mr. McLean firmly answers:

"Enquirer has no opinion to force
upon its patrons, it simply prints the truth and tells the truth that his reader
form his own opinions. By reducing the price of the paper,
and giving news and greater variety as well as every class of business news catered to, where a cheaper newspaper cannot afford."

The very liberal support given the
paper by the public at large, makes
it unique in its management.

It is faithfully written and printed in larger numbers as well as greater magnitude.

Rabbits That Climb.

A correspondent writes to the London
Press that while he was hunting rabbits
with ferrets in January he found rabbits on three occasions in willow trees which surrounded the water of a mill stream.

The Miller said that it was not an unusual instance. Some months ago he told of other rabbits which had been shot, like raccoons or opossums, out of trees in England. In recent years cases of rabbits in trees have been reported with increasing frequency.

From veraschia has come the most remarkable history of rabbits as climbers.

The only way in which rabbits could be kept out of certain tracts of land in Australia was by the building of wire fences about them, the fences having meshes so small that the beasts could not crawl through and being so high that they could not jump over. The rabbits have clawed at the wires until their nails gradually have become hooked.

Some of the rabbits learned to scale the fences, and then great additional expense was necessary, for the top of the fence had to be bent over like a J upside down, with the hook out, so that the rabbits could not get over the top.

Australian rabbits are said to be learning to climb trees for the leaves.

A New Study of Fashionable Life.

Julien Gordon (Mrs. Van Rensselaer Cruege) has used for her last novel a
study of New York, Newport and Boston life, which promises to be read with
wide interest by all who are interested in American fashionable life. No one knows the society of these

three centers of fashion better than Miss Cruege. From her girlhood
up she had every opportunity to observe and we have had no American
woman of more brilliant powers, not
only in reading the human heart, but
of putting her impressions in delightful
fashion.

The first chapters open in the September Cosmopolitan.

Natural Magnet.

Professor Smythe was once lecturing in a provincial town on natural philosophy, and in the course of his experiments he introduced a most powerful magnet, with which he attracted a bag of iron from a distance of two feet.

"Can you conceive a greater attraction?" demanded the lecturer,
with air of triumph.

"I am surprised a voice from the
audience asked:

"What is the grand terrestrial object?"

"You wished."

The lecturer, somewhat puzzled,
shallowed the man who had spoken to
name the article. "It is up now," he said, "in every newspaper."
